Good afternoon people, I have a story to tell you!

Once I was a part of the Kelly gang and there was a shoot out about to happen.

I think we could win because before the fight we made new armour. We have trapped hostages in the Glenrowan Inn just in case they spoke of our plan to derail the train. I heard the train coming and the shoot out began.

The police grabbed their rifles and I said "prepare for the fight for justice!" All I could hear was bullets and people groaning in pain. I shot a police officer in the head but I didn't realise I got shot. I was limping for help but I was too weak. I fell and the police killed me.

How would you feel if you were fighting the police when all you wanted was justice?

Ned did not win, he got captured and we lost.

I do not regret my choices, I was just fighting for justice.

Thank You
