

Speech-Timmy

By Edie

Good afternoon everyone,

My name is constable Timmy and I am here today to tell you about the night when Ned Kelly tried to kill us in Glenrowan.

Us officers were on our way to Glenrowan to stop Ned Kelly. As we were approaching, we suddenly saw a man holding a red cloth over a lit candle to form a red light to signal danger.

We slowed the train down and saw Ned in his armour, ready to shoot us! Terrified but angry we were ready too!

We looked around to see horrified hostages holding back fear in the inn. That man who saved us told us what had happened. We were furious but scared.

We got ready to fight and slowly walked over, heart beating, determined to finally get Ned Kelly for good! Bullets were flying everywhere, hostages confused and scared and my heart was beating.FAST! "THIS GANG MUST STOP!!!!!!!" I yelled to the other officers. I knew we had no time but we NEVER stopped fighting! Ned's gang didn't stop either.They were still trying to kill us. We could see everyone getting weaker. Including us. This wasn't the end...I think.

How do you think bullets flying towards you shot by Ned Kelly feels?

The ending wasn't expected. Ned's gang died and Ned was hanged. A few policemen died but luckily most survived.

Please remember that all we wanted to do was stop Ned Kelly and simply just survive.

Thank you.
