

Speech-Police

By Louise

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen my name is Louise Lebrunet-Wilson.

I was a police woman from the last stand of Ned Kelly's shoot out. I'm here to tell you what happened at the Glenrowan shoot out.

When we stopped we heard someone say Ned Kelly derailed the track so you would die and if someone survived he would shoot out. We were ready for the shoot out.

We were scared but then we suddenly saw a red light and we stopped and Thomas saved us from Ned Kelly derailing the track. We surrounded them and we started the shoot out.

During the shooting I was thinking what if he escapes with his gang? What would we do? I can see Ned Kelly with his big armour. I'm so angry I can taste smoke and feel the bullets shooting past me. There are poor innocent kids and people that we need to get out. We need to kill that bush ranger. I just cant believe he tried to derail the track. I see the bullets going everywhere the bush ranger was trapped. He was panicking. His gang and him got shot at. The gang had blood everywhere and they looked very weak. Ned Kelly isn't giving up, he's trying to hide but I think we won. I could smell blood. One of them shot my police in the head.

Could you imagine if the train crashed and we didn't catch Ned Kelly and his gang? Ned Kelly got shot in the leg and went to jail and we clearly won, surely Ned is getting heaned soon. We mustn't let him escape we will not let him escape

We finally beat Ned Kelly and his gang. I'm so happy that Thomas saved us or Ned Kelly would have won.

Thank you for listening to my story all this way.
